

Opportunity: Summer Student position

The World Breeding Federation for Sport Horses is seeking an enthusiastic individual to assist with a horse-industry research project.

The ideal candidate will have excellent verbal and written English language skills (not necessarily first language) and some knowledge of the horse industry. The project will require proactively contacting breed organisations and national equestrian federations to collect information on their annual activities and outlook. The student will operate under the direction of the Development Department of the World Breeding Federation for Sport Horses (<https://www.wbfsh.com/development-department>).

The position is part-time, approximately 15 hours per week and for a duration of 10 weeks. Remuneration will be €13.30 per hour for a qualified candidate. The student will work from home and should be aware that due to time-zone differences working hours may fall outside the traditional 09h00 - 17h00 window.

Applications are open immediately and will remain open until the position is filled. For further information on the WBFSH please see <https://www.wbfsh.com>.
